

At LAX airport, the convention's Marriott hotel provides a free shuttle service directly to the hotel from several pick-up points. This service is provided every 20-30 minutes, 24 hours per day, 7 days per week.

To board the shuttle, go to the UPPER LEVEL (departures) (yes, that's correct) and find the nearest red "Hotel and Private Parking" sign. A photo of the red sign is shown below.

If you're arriving at Tom Bradley International terminal, you will need to walk outside to the left to Terminal 3 or walk to the right to Terminals 4 & 5. Refer to the map below.

NOTE: The shuttle van is shared with the Renaissance hotel; both hotel names are printed on the outside of the van. A photo of the van is shown below.
